

SPEECH COMMUNICATION CERTIFICATE

A certificate in Speech Communication requires the completion of 15 credit hours. The program equips students with the public speaking, interpersonal, presentation, and persuasive communication skills needed to communicate confidently and effectively in professional and personal settings across a variety of fields, including business, education, healthcare, law, media, and public relations. Graduates will be prepared to analyze audiences, deliver effective messages, and demonstrate strong leadership and communication skills in diverse professional and civic environments. Students wishing to earn the Certificate in Speech Communication must complete the following five courses:

Code	Title	Hours
COM 200	Public Speaking	3
COM 302	Interracial/Intercultural Comm	3
COM 304	Oral Interpretation	3
COM 315	Voice and Diction	3
COM 401	Institutional Communications	3
Total Hours		15