BACHELOR OF ART IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Degree Requirements

School of Business Liberal Studies Requirements

Students majoring in business complete the liberal studies requirements as defined in Chapter Eight (8) of this catalog. To minimize hours to degree, students should select ECO 201 (<https://kysu-public.courseleaf.com/undergraduate/business-engineering-technology/school-of-business/#coursestext>) Prin of Economics I as one of their Social Science choices and BUA 120 (<https://kysu-public.courseleaf.com/undergraduate/business-engineering-technology/school-of-business/#coursestext>) Business and Society as one of their Arts and Humanities selections.

B.A. – Business Administration – Business Common Professional Core Courses

Students completing the business common professional component will possess the broad skills necessary to pursue effectively their chosen track. The component provides a solid background in an organization's environment and operations and provides the analytical tools needed for problem-solving and decision-making.

Students should be able to:

- Understand the environment and operations of an organization
- Apply business-related analytical tools
- Apply professional and personal self-management skills.

The B.A. in Business Administration offers five tracks that are currently enrolling students including Business Management, Accounting, Finance, Management Information Systems, and Marketing.

The Supply Chain Management track is currently not enrolling students.
