

KENTUCKY STATE UNIVERSITY

AFRICANA STUDIES (ASP)

ASP 101: Black Experience in America

A survey of black people from freedom in Africa to enslavement in the United States, specifically examining enslaved and free black communities in colonial and antebellum era.

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3

ASP 102: Intro to Africana Studies

This is an introductory survey course that examines the basic theoretical concepts used to analyze the global Black experience.

Prerequisite: ENG 102

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3

ASP 201: Sem in American Black Exper

Seminar course that focuses on the transition of African Americans from enslavement to emancipation to citizenship in the modern and postmodern eras.

Prerequisite: ASP 101

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3

ASP 202: Seminar in Africana Studies

This course is an expansion of ASP 102. Students will conduct research in specific topics of interest related to the Africana experience.

Prerequisite: ENG 102

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3

ASP 300: Special Top. in Africana Stud.

Survey course that analyzes the current and historical experience of people descended from Africa during the modern era (1400-1945 AD) but not living on the continent. Particular focus on the US, Caribbean, and Latin America, although diasporic regions may differ.

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3

ASP 301: Research Methods Africana Stu

This course will provide students with conventional quantitative and qualitative research methods.

Prerequisite: ASP 102 and 202 or consent of instructor

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3

ASP 302: Readings Black Women's Hist

This course uses various primary sources to examine the contribution of black women to the literary canon and historiography of Western and non-Western societies.

Prerequisite: ASP 101 or consent of instructor

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3

ASP 303: American Civil Rights Movement

An investigation of the Civil Rights Movement in the 20th century. Focus on the strategic and philosophical debates among the leadership, organizations, the role of government and citizens in shaping reform.

Prerequisite: ASP 101 and ASP 301 or consent of instructor

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3

ASP 305: Africana Intellectual Thought

A seminar course which examines the political movements of African descendent people, inclusive of the societal dynamics that provided the impetus and context for political struggle and cultural production.

Prerequisite: ASP 102 and ASP 202 or consent of instructor

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3

ASP 306: Economic Dev in the Diaspora

This course examines the global political economic system and its impact on people of the African Diaspora.

Prerequisite: ASP 202 or consent of instructor

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3

ASP 466: Special Topics Africana Stu

A seminar for the analysis and discussion of special topics within the discipline of African studies. May be repeated twice for credit.

Prerequisite: Junior standing or consent of instructor

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3

ASP 489: Field Work in Black Community

Placement in a community based, international or local human services, non-governmental organization, or governmental agency or corporate organization.

Prerequisite: ASP 202 and ASP 303 or consent of instructor

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3

ASP 499: Senior Sem in Africana Studies

This course is a capstone experience for graduating seniors. This seminar will integrate theory and research with practice.

Prerequisite: Senior status or consent of instructor

Credit Hours: 3

Contact Hours: 3