UNIVERSITY SUPPORT SERVICES

Kentucky State University's commitment to student success extends beyond the classroom. We offer comprehensive support services designed to enhance your academic journey and ensure a well-rounded college experience. Whether you need assistance with accessibility, staying active, ensuring safety, or enriching your studies, we have the resources to support you.

Campus Safety and Police

Your safety is our top priority. The KSU Campus Safety and Police Department is dedicated to maintaining a secure and welcoming environment for all students, faculty, and staff. Our officers are highly trained professionals who provide 24/7 patrols, emergency response services, and safety education programs. We work closely with the campus community to foster a sense of security and trust, ensuring that everyone can focus on their academic and personal growth without concern.

Disability Resource Center

At the Disability Resource Center (DRC), we are committed to creating an inclusive and accessible learning environment for all students. The DRC provides a range of services, including academic accommodations, assistive technology, and personalized support plans. Our team works collaboratively with students to identify and address their unique needs, empowering them to achieve their full potential. We believe that everyone deserves equal access to educational opportunities and strive to remove barriers to success.

Intercollegiate Athletics

Kentucky State University takes pride in our robust Intercollegiate Athletics program. Our student-athletes excel both on and off the field, demonstrating dedication, teamwork, and leadership. With a variety of sports teams, including basketball, football, volleyball, and track and field, we offer numerous opportunities for students to compete at a high level while earning their degrees. Our coaches and athletic staff provide mentorship and support, helping athletes balance their academic responsibilities with their passion for sports.

Paul G. Blazer Library

The Paul G. Blazer Library is the intellectual heart of our campus, offering a rich collection of resources to support your academic endeavors. Our state-of-the-art facility includes access to thousands of books, journals, digital databases, and multimedia resources. Knowledgeable librarians are available to assist with research, information literacy, and resource navigation. The library also provides quiet study spaces, collaborative work areas, and technology lending services, making it an essential hub for learning and discovery.
